If the vacancy is in the office of President, the President-Elect will automatically become President and the office of President-Elect will thereupon become vacant. The appointed person shall take office immediately upon approval of the appointment and will hold the office until the expiration of the term of the person replaced and an elected successor takes office. A person appointed may subsequently be elected to the position if otherwise eligible.

15.2 Removal – The BOD may vote to remove any Board member for cause by a 2/3 vote of the Board members present at a regular or special meeting of the BOD at which there is a quorum, or by action without a meeting as provided in Section 11 of Article V. A member whose removal is being considered shall not vote on that question, but if present the member shall be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum. A resolution for removal may be adopted pursuant to Section 11 of Article V without the vote of the member who is to be removed.

15.2.1 Cause – Causes for removal can be any that demonstrate to the satisfaction of the requisite number of members of the BOD that the continuation of the BOD member in office will not be in the best interests of ADA, including but not limited to: neglect of Board duties and responsibilities; failure to attend Board meetings regularly; illegal activity as a member of the BOD; or acting in any manner detrimental to ADA.

ARTICLE VI: Committees

1.2 Executive Committee – There shall be an Executive Committee, to consist of the President, the President-Elect, the Immediate Past-President and the Treasurer. The Executive Committee will have the powers of the BOD and may take any action that the BOD would be entitled to take, if the Executive Committee expressly determines by resolution that it is in the best interests of ADA to take such action before the time at which the full BOD can next be convened to act. All actions of the Executive Committee must be put to a vote of ratification by the BOD at the next regular or special meeting of the BOD and will remain effective unless the motion for ratification fails to be adopted. All of the provisions of Article V pertaining to meetings of the BOD will apply to meetings of the Executive Committee, except that the Executive Committee may hold special meetings on less than 24 hours' notice.

Section 2. Manner of Acting

2.1 Each committee shall act only in accordance with the purpose for creating such committee.

2.2 The provisions of these Bylaws for the conducting of the business of the BOD shall apply to committees created by the BOD.

ARTICLE VII: Nominations and Elections

Section 1. Nominating Committee

1.1 The BOD shall appoint a Nominating Committee, consisting of an odd number of at least three (3) Fellows or Life Members, to nominate candidates to succeed the President-Elect and the Directors whose terms are expiring at the next annual meeting (with the exception of the current President and Immediate Past-President). 1.3 The marked ballots must be received by the Executive Director, or the designee of the Executive Director, at least forty-five (45) days prior to the annual meeting in order to be counted. The BOD may establish procedures for returning ballots electronically or otherwise, that maintain the secrecy of each ballot as to ADA members and staff.

1.4 A candidate for a position must receive a majority of the votes of the Fellows and Life Members voting for that position to be elected to that position. If no candidate receives a majority vote, or if the candidate elected cannot take office or declines to do so, then the office shall be filled by appointment as set forth in Section 15.1 of Article V, the appointed person to take office when a candidate elected to the office would have done so.

1.5 Results of the election will be announced at the annual meeting, at which time the candidates elected shall take office.

Section 2. Independent Nominations

Fellows or Life Members may submit independent nominations by submitting the name(s) of nominees to the Chair of the Nominating Committee one hundred five (105) days in advance of the annual meeting. 7.1 Policy. The BOD shall adopt a Conflict of Interest policy. A Director must abstain from discussion and voting, or taking action, on any matter with respect to which the Director or a member of his or her immediate family has a direct financial interest, whether personal or business. Any such conflicts of interest must upon subsequent discovery be immediately disclosed in writing to the President and the Executive Director.
